BILL REDDINGTON IS ELECTED HLDI BOARD CHAIRMAN

Arlington, VA — The Highway Loss Data Institute is pleased to announce the election of Bill Reddington as the new chairman of its Board of Directors. Reddington is director, actuarial services, of Kentucky Farm Bureau Insurance Companies. He succeeds Shu C. Lin, senior vice president and actuary, Chubb & Son, who served as HLDI chairman in 2009 and will continue to serve as a Board member.

"The insurance loss information HLDI provides the public helps car buyers make informed choices, and I'm proud to be part of this important work," Reddington says. HLDI president Adrian Lund adds, "Bill's strong leadership will help us continue to grow HLDI's detailed analyses of motor vehicle insurance claims experience and how it varies by vehicle design."

Serving as vice chairman is Martin Deede, vice president, MetLife Auto and Home. Other HLDI Board members are Bart Anderson, senior vice president/membership, National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies; Philip A. Baum, associate vice president, actuarial risk segmentation, Nationwide Insurance; Howard L. Cohen, director of analytics, GEICO Corporation; Michael D. Doerfler, product development manager, Progressive Insurance; Thomas J. Ellefson, actuary-auto lines director, American Family Insurance Group; Judith M. Feldmeier, vice president and chief actuary, Auto Club Group; Peter R. Foley, vice president, claims administration, American Insurance Association; Alice H. Gannon, senior vice president, chief actuary, USAA; James Gillette, vice president, chief pricing actuary, American National Property and Casualty Companies; Donald L. Griffin, vice president, personal lines, Property Casualty Insurers Association of America; Scott T. Hallworth, senior vice president, chief actuary of personal lines, The Travelers Companies; Keith Holler, department manager, predictive modeling, Erie Insurance Group; Shu C. Lin,
